THE JOURNAL OF GENERAL AND APPLIED MICROBIOLOGY
VOLUME 11 MARCH 1965 NUMBER 1

CONTENTS

Microbiological studies on petroleum and natural gas. III. Determination of Brevibacterium, Arthrobacter, Micrococcus, Sarcina, Alcaligenes, and Achromobacter isolated from oil-brines in Japan.
by H. Iizuka and K. Komagata 1

Microbiological studies on petroleum and natural gas. IV. Microflora of Higashiyama oil mining field.
by H. Iizuka and K. Komagata 15

Studies on continuous fermentation. Part 1. The concept of the mean cumulative-age of microbes.
by S. Aiba and M. Hara 25

Studies on continuous fermentation. Part 2. Correlations between the mean cumulative-age of multi-cellular microbes and their activities.
by S. Aiba and M. Hara 41

A racemizing enzyme system of Lactobacillus plantarum.
by T. Hiyama, S. Mizushima and K. Kitahara 51

Nucleic acid synthesis in Pseudomonas P. (1). Effects of cell concentration.
by M. Takagi, S. Mizuno and B. Maruo 61

Nucleic acid synthesis in Pseudomonas P. (2). The fate of messenger RNA synthesized in "conc. culture".
by M. Takagi, S. Mizuno and B. Maruo 71

Role of sugar transport system in the conversion of sucrose to 3-ketosucrose by Agrobacterium tumefaciens.
by S. Fukui, A. Tai and R. M. Hochster 75

Is deoxyribonucleic acid of Aspergillus oryzae conidia modified chemically in the early period of germination?
by K. Tanaka, F. Kogané and T. Yanagita 85
